Announcements:

MAY IS MENTAL HEALTH MONTH

This year's May focus on mental health is more important than ever. Each person's response to uncertainty and disruption to their life is different and needs a personal response. Explore the Tools2Thrive options on the Announcements Section on our website and see what works for you. The entire #Tools2Thrive Toolkit can be viewed and downloaded from: www.mhanational.org/may

VIEW A VIRTUAL PhotoVoice EXHIBIT

PhotoVoice is a series of group conversations about life experiences and ways of coping with mental health issues to bring greater awareness to the community. CLICK HERE to stroll through a PhotoVoice exhibit to view poignant photographs and interpretive captions created from personal experiences.

NCCMH OFFICE OF RECIPIENT RIGHTS requests all providers review and instruct their staff to follow the revised Recipient Rights procedures in effect during the COVID-19 pandemic.
