

BLOODBORNE PATHOGENS / INFECTION CONTROL

DATE: 5-24-22

Name: _____

1. Universal Precautions means:
  - a. Avoiding all contact with people who might be infected
  - b. Treating all body fluids and blood as potentially infected
  - c. Washing hands carefully with soap and water

2. The body's infection fighting tools are called:
  - a. Pathogens
  - b. White blood cells
  - c. Antibodies
  - d. B and C

3. Hepatitis B is an inflammation of the:
  - a. Kidneys
  - b. Liver
  - c. Pancreas
  - d. Bloodstream

4. Which of the following are potential routes of entry for blood borne pathogens?
  - a. Mucous membrane of the eyes
  - b. Broken Skin
  - c. Accidental penetration by a contaminated sharp object
  - d. All of the above

5. What four conditions must be present for disease transmission to occur?
  - a. A pathogen, germs, air and moisture
  - b. A pathogen, in sufficient quantity, proper entry site and susceptibility
  - c. A virus, antibodies, entry site, a break in the skin
  - d. None of the above

6. An Exposure Control Plan should contain which of the following?
  - a. Exposure Determination
  - b. Schedule and method of implementing other parts of the OSHA standard
  - c. Procedures for evaluation details of an exposure incident
  - d. All of the above